Editorial

Hi de hi, Campers.

Well, 2007 has definitely started with a bang! If you were unlucky and didn’t get to see “Cabaret” at the Abbey, you missed a goodie. Despite a few set-backs early on, the remainder of the season played to mainly full houses and rave reviews from many sources. Thank you very much to all involved with this production – you should be proud of your achievements.

Coming up for the rest of the year, we have “CATS” in the Regent on Broadway, “How the West Was Warped” by Children’s Abbey Theatre School, and our end of year production, “Footloose”, which will be staged in the Abbey Theatre. So the rest of the year should be just as splendid as the start.

The poster features a black background with two yellow circular spots at the top, each containing a black silhouette of a cat in a different pose. The word "CATS" is written in large, white, stylized letters in the center. Below the title, the text reads: "MUSIC BY Andrew Lloyd Webber", "Based on 'Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats' by T.S. Eliot", "DIRECTOR/CHOREOGRAPHER - Dean McKerras", and "MUSICAL DIRECTOR - Barry Jones". At the bottom, it says "LIMITED SEASON... BOOK TODAY!" and "From 3 August 2007". The Regent on Broadway logo is on the left, and the TicketDirect logo is on the right. At the bottom, there are logos for SCREEN VISTAS, RECRUITMENT PLUS, and Manawatu Standard. Small text at the very bottom reads: "By Arrangement with ORIGIN THEATRICAL on behalf of THE REALLY USEFUL GROUP LIMITED CATS logo TM © 1981 The Really Useful Group Limited".

Tickets for the first six performances of “CATS” are on sale now at TicketDirect outlets. Ticket sales for the final six performances will open on 18 June 2007.
